

1 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. Chairman and ladies
2 and gentlemen, you will remember last evening when we 3 were on Section 3.16 that Delegate Scanlan raised a 4 question of what actually applied to the exceptions when 5 the special session was taking place, and I think this 6 amendment will now clarify the situation to show what we 7 mean in the way of when the exception shall apply.

8 Starting on page 4, line 30, would now read,
9 "except during the first four days of the special session, 10 no vote on final passage of the bill shall be taken until 11 the bill and amendments thereto shall be in writing, nor 12 shall any vote on final passage of the bill be taken 13 until the fifth calendar day after its introduction in the 14 House of origin and until the second calendar day after 15 it reaches the House, except upon the affirmative vote
16 of three-fifths of all the members of the House in which 17 the suspension is requested."

18 Now, it is a long sentence, but it does, I
19 believe, show that the exception applies to the special
20 session on both counts.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher, unless the
